Kearney Foundation of Soil Science – 2006-2011 Mission
Final Report Guidelines
Kearney Research Projects
Reports Due July 31, 2012

Final Reports need to be submitted electronically to the Kearney Foundation of Soil Science by July 31, 2012 using the Kearney Foundation Web based system. The site will be open from now until the deadline. You can review and edit your report anytime before the deadline. Please note that your final report will be posted on our website and will showcase the work accomplished with funding from the Kearney Foundation.

You will need the following information to complete the required forms online:

Project Information
- ✓ Project Title
- ✓ Reporting Period
- ✓ Keywords (no more than five keywords that describe your project)

Principal Investigator(s)
- ✓ Name
- ✓ Campus
- ✓ Department
- ✓ Title
- ✓ Street address
- ✓ Email
- ✓ Phone
- ✓ Fax
- ✓ Web page
- ✓ Professional Profile (brief description of your research interests)

Principal Co-Investigator(s)
- ✓ Same as above

Project Staff
- ✓ Provide the following information for each member of your project team:
  - ✓ Name
  - ✓ Title (e.g. postdoc, graduate student, undergraduate assistant, etc)

If you have a credit balance, please provide a brief explanation on how the remaining funds will be used (example: salary and benefits for John Doe - Postdoc for 5 months: $6,000) or return the funds to the Kearney Foundation by July 31, 2012.

Please contact the Kearney Foundation Program Manager at Kearney@ucdavis.edu or 530-754-9668 to make arrangements.

Research Highlights
This information will be highly visible and used to prepare progress reports for the entire 2006-2011 Kearney Mission. Each project should submit 1 to 3 research highlights in the form of a bulleted list. Each highlight should be written clearly, concisely and in language that can be understood by the general public.

NOTE: All the above information will be submitted using the Progress Report forms available online. Do not include this information in your Project Results document—see following guidelines.

Project Results
This is a PDF document that will be uploaded online. (PLEASE REMEMBER: A copy of the document in Word format should be sent to Kearney via email to Kearney@ucdavis.edu by the deadline)

Final reports do not have a set limit of pages, but a reasonable length is six to ten pages not including figures, tables and references. (1 inch margins, Times New Roman font, size 12, single-spaced)

Your Project Results document should include:
→ Project Title (in bold, centered)
→ Investigators (PIs name marked with an asterisk, centered)
→ Affiliations(s) (in italics—in the case of multiple affiliations and participants, please connect affiliation to participant using superscripts numerals, centered)
→ Within the extended abstract, please provide the following components:

  Project objectives addressed – List proposal objectives or list modified objectives.

  Approach and procedures – This should be quite brief.

  Results – Present your major findings concisely and clearly. Consider including a few key figures and/or tables summarizing your most significant findings.
Discussion – Discuss the implications of your results with respect to our previous understanding of the subject. Relate the importance of your findings in the context of the overall Kearney mission. Discuss any unexpected findings, specific problems, new directions identified, etc.

References (references to be included on pages in addition to # of pages requirement above) – Please refer to the reference guidelines at the end of this document.

Submission of Project Results: Please submit your Project Results document as a Word file, via email, as an attachment, to Kearney@ucdavis.edu. Final reports will be sent out for peer review by your colleagues. You will revise your report based on suggestions from the peer reviewers and the Director and then send us the final revised version (via email, as an attachment, Word format) to Kearney@ucdavis.edu for us to upload into the system. We may request you to send us your figures in a different form.

List of Publications/Presentations Resulting from Project
(Do not include in the Project Results document—There is a form online where you will input this information)

Presentations: List all presentations based on project research made at scientific meetings, conferences, workshops, in outreach efforts, etc.

Technical Publications: List publications resulting from your Kearney Foundation supported project, including:

1. Peer-reviewed journal articles, published or in press during the reporting period
2. Master’s theses or doctoral dissertations accepted by the university
3. Non peer-reviewed articles, e.g. book chapters, proceedings papers, trade journal articles.

Please refer to the reference guidelines at the end of this document.
